

My roles

All the people who live in the world there are have roles for themselves. Now I would like to show all of you the point of a role for myself there are As a student, in group study, live in home, cleaning, and good child. Firstly, as a student I have good time management every day and communication in the school with the teacher and all student friends. Rule management in school we have the rule I can to do it. Secondly, in-group study me joining with my friends and can help the team members we have the problems I can share ideas. Thirdly, live in home I live a lot of people in the room. Sometimes my friend is sick, and I take care of her. Adapt to speak, sleep, and eat. Finally, cleaning I have a cleaning in class, at school, and in home. I clean everything on schedule. To sum up, all the points every good for the student and a good child.
